Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 11-29-05 with respect to Pawlak et al. have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Carpentier and Smith rejections have been withdrawn.
2. With regard to Pawlak et al. Applicant contends a valve seat is lacking. Examiner disagrees because Pawlak et al. clearly show a valve seat 38 in figure 2. Furthermore, the valve is "spool shaped", normally closed (c4:32-39), and magnetic forces are provided.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 10-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pawlak et al. US PN 5,135,538.
5. Pawlak et al. disclose in figures 1-2 and c3:7-c5 :13 a spool shaped prosthesis comprising permanent magnets, electromagnets, flanges, valve flap, and valve seat meeting the structural limitations of the claims and capable of meeting the intended use.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
